As an applicant, I am aware that the prison will check my record with the police and that a professional assessment will be done by the police authority and the prison before any visitation permit is granted.

Visitors under the age of 18 can only visit accompanied by an adult. If the visit takes place with an adult who is not the guardian, written permission from the guardian or guardians must be submitted. The permit must contain a name, address, telephone number and birth date.

If prisoners do not have the opportunity to receive a visit, cf. legal restrictions, or do not want visits, you will not receive any feedback. The prison has a duty of confidentiality about who is in prison and therefore does not have the opportunity to answer questions about whether the application is being processed or not. If the application is approved, a response will be issued within approximately 14 days.

I have familiarized myself with the rules for visiting prisons.
